

8 NOV 1947

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE,

Raymond U. Hoover

PROVO—Raymond Upton Hoover, 53, 240 S. 1st East, died early Friday following a stroke suffered Sunday night.

Born April 8, 1894, in Provo, he was a son of James and Barbara Loveless Hoover. He received his early education in Provo, and later attended Brigham Young university. He married Elva Richardson March 14, 1919, in Brigham City.

He spent his entire life in Provo, with the exception of a few years in the engineering department of the bureau of public roads at Ogden.

He served with engineers who surveyed the land for the Columbia Steel Co. at Ironton and started work in the office at the completion of construction of the plant where he had since been employed.

Mr. Hoover was active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and was an elder at the time of his death. He served on the old folks committee many years, and was secretary of the Provo stake old folks committee at the time of his death.

A past grand master of the Odd Fellows lodge, he served as its secretary a number of years. He also was a member of the Provo Elks club.

He is survived by his widow; three daughters: Barbara Marie and Lola Mae Hoover, Provo, and Mrs. Norma Raynor Marietta, Georgia; four brothers and sisters: LeRoy Hoover and Mrs. Grace Johnson, Provo; Mrs. Ned Hodgkins, Long Beach, Cal., and Mrs. Zena Spalding, Los Angeles, Cal.; one grandchild.

Funeral services will be announced by Valley mortuary.

Mr. Hoover